

ORADEA | 2 SEPTEMBER 2026

Looking for fresh ideas, practical teaching strategies and inspiration for the new school year?

Join us in Oradea on 2 September for an inspiring afternoon of professional development, bringing together English language teachers and experts from British Council and Cambridge University Press & Assessment.

This event is organised in partnership with the University of Oradea – Faculty of Letters and the Bihor School Inspectorate.

What's on the programme?

The Cambridge journey: Supporting your learners from Pre-A1 Starters to C2 Proficiency

Explore how to support learners throughout their Cambridge English journey, from their first steps in English to advanced proficiency.

The Voice Within: Exploring the Impact of Teacher Self-Talk on Teaching and Learning

Discover how teacher self-talk can influence teaching practice, teacher confidence and the learning experience.

More than words: Actionable feedback for stronger writing

Explore practical approaches to giving effective, actionable feedback that helps learners develop stronger writing skills.

Meet our speakers:

Claire Ross – Cambridge Author, Cambridge University Press & Assessment, in partnership with Fischer International, Official Cambridge Distributor

Cristiana Osan – Teacher Trainer, British Council

Certificates will be provided to participants.
